We have updated our website, added more items to our platters page and added a film shoot to our portfolio. Please go and have a look. On our home page we have an option to “sign our guestbook”, if you have been a customer of ours please feel free to sign it and to leave your comments, all comments are much appreciated.

Winter has finally hit us in full force with a stunning storm at 5am in the morning consisting of Thunder and lightning, we all thought we were in for one heck of a rainy day and then the storm politely decided to leave us and let the sun come out.

A few days later after a spell of cold days we got a day which topped 29 degrees – one extreme to the other – is Mother Nature confused or just having a good laugh at us packing away our summer clothes to scrambling for them again?

Either way, hot or cold The Business of Catering still goes on. Due to our economy not doing so well and budgets a bit tight, Mark and I will be putting together some “Winter specials” for you and we will either post them up on our website or send them via e-mail or both. Everyone wants to be able to entertain, have good food served for special occasions or just have a big group of friends over for dinner with out it breaking the bank. So watch out for our winter specials coming out soon.

If anyone has any questions or specific needs then please don't hesitate to contact us and we will be happy to help you and to work around your requirements.

Keep well and we hope to be of service to you in the near future.
